

The Sherborne Area

Directory for Health and Care

WHO CAN HELP IN THE SHERBORNE AREA 2026

This Directory lists contact details of local organisations that offer support to help you stay healthy and independent. It is arranged A-Z. The information has been compiled and distributed by the Patient Participation Group of The Grove Medical Centre and the Sherborne Area Health Champions for the benefit of the community of Sherborne and District

'This is a list of providers for you to contact to enquire about their services. You should check that they have the relevant qualifications and safeguarding in place before agreeing to engage them. Inclusion in this directory does not act as a recommendation'

For updates to this Directory please provide any alterations or additions in writing to:

BEREAVEMENT

Bereavement Advice Centre: 0800 634 9494. A free helpline service provided by Co-op Legal Services. Practical advice on the many issues and procedures one is faced with after the death of a loved one.

Bereavement Support Group:

If you've experienced the loss of a loved one, you don't have to walk the path of grief alone, our Bereavement Support Group offers a gentle, understanding space where people can share, listen and find comfort in one another's company. This is a self-help group, not a counselling or therapy service.

It may be most help for those who are a little further along in their grief journey – people who feel ready to talk, reflect, and support others who have also experienced loss.

To join: Please ask to speak to a Social Prescriber at your local Sherborne Medical Centre to register your interest

Cruse Bereavement: 01305 260216 <https://cruse.org.uk> Email: dorset@cruse.org.uk
